

WGA 006 1728

John ADAMTHWAITE of Hallbank in Frostrow, Will, Inventory and two Bonds

John Adamthwaite of Hallbank, p. Sedbergh yeoman

CURATION BOND dated septimo die Novembris 1728

Bound: William X Atkinson of Hallbank, p. Sedbergh yeoman

George Holme of Diloker Park, p. Kendal, Westmorland, yeoman

Sworn: Both, to look after Thomas Adamthwaite aged 13 years and William Adamthwaite aged 11 years, the natural & lawful children of John Adamthwaite, late of Sedbergh, deceased.

PROBATE BOND dated same

Bound: Same

Sworn: Same, to execute during the minority of Thomas Adamthwaite, the executor.

INVENTORY dated 1st October 1728 £107 5s 6

less debts of £61.

Appraisers: Thomas Adamthwaite of Ravenstonedale yeoman
Martin Wilson of Diliker, Co. Westmorland yeoman
Edmond Bland of Hollin Hill yeoman
John Fawcett of Fell Yeat yeoman

WILL dated 27th October 1728

To my son Thomas all my estate at Hallbank where I now live and also all my other lands at Hallbank which John Bowstick now hath in Farm, and also the land at Hallbank which I purchased of Benjamin Nelson, plus the several Closes called Cowm Bank, Cowm Bottom and Seavey Parrock, which I purchased of John Haygarth; also the Close called Joshua Bank which I purchased of Gilbert Thompson and which formerly belonged to Joshua Thompson.

To my now wife Elizabeth annuity of £8.

To my son William my estate at Fellside called Branthwaites, which John Shipperd now hath in farm [& other lands at Gapp]

R & R to my son Thomas, sole exec.

To my uncle Thomas Adamthwaite one guinea.

My son Thomas to pay to his brother William Adamthwaite £100 twelve months after my wife's decease.

Supervisors are my loving brothers-in-law George Holme & William Atkinson, to whom I commit the care of the education of my children during their minority.

Testator marked I A

Witnesses: Christopher Spicer
Jeffery Lancaster
Jno Gosling.